ENGAGE

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Growing up the book of the Bible most frequently studied in my Sunday morning and Wednesday evening classes (and yes, I was at church Sunday morning, Sunday evening and Wednesday nights J) was Acts.

The format for most studies was to read the text for that week’s lesson, then answer fill-in-the-blank questions.
Boring.

What IS NOT boring is the excitement of Acts when read with open questions: What did the flames look like in chapter two? How long did they last? When the apostles decided they needed to designate deacons for part of the ministry did people feel offended? While preaching prophetically did Peter gesticulate wildly? What was the expression on Paul’s face at the stoning of Stephen? And I could go on, and on, and on!

And here is what is EXCITING NOW: We are writing the next chapter of Acts with our very lives!

This new thing of HB and AP, this delightful experience of God among us now. is the actual living out of new “last days” (Acts 2). Are you working with God in catapulting Donelson more completely into Kingdom living??? Where we live and breathe and have our being is every bit as vital to the Holy Spirit as Jerusalem on Pentecost. So . . .

A new chapter begins! Your ticket to ride is your baptism, so let’s get on board and ride!

Grace, +Melisa

We exist to serve God through Jesus’ life changing model of love, acceptance, compassion and justice.

Loving Our Neighbor

Jesus said the greatest commandment is to love God. The next is to love your neighbor as yourself. I have been blessed to witness people's testimony to obey these commandments during the past few weeks.

Pastor Melisa, Frances McGill, Corey Arp, Zack Valder, Ralph Foley, Chuck Bernyk, Lynn Holt, Alisa Mueller, Debra Dungan, Jim Turner, Steve Harman, Linda Cowell, and myself have given prayer, time, money, and our talents to transform 2 classrooms into a place of beauty for children of the Nashville Ethiopian Evangelical Church (NEEC). We have repaired, cleaned, painted and organized that space for the children because we love God and children.

Lessons have been planned to assist the NEEC in their desire to teach their children about God and Jesus. Project Our Children is about showing unconditional love to children. There is no greater expression than loving your neighbor.

It is our differences that make us God's children. He didn't create us all the same. We love differently, we speak differently, we dress differently, and we view the world differently. The one unifying element is we all love and worship the same God.

Other glimpses of God have been the generosity of volunteers for Rest in the Curve and people who donate clothing, shoes, food, and money to offer our neighbors a better life.

David Cook showed me another glimpse of unconditional love this week by cleaning the garden beds, purchasing and planting plants. He does this out of his unconditional love for people and God. Feeding hungry people is what Jesus asked us to do. Produce and herbs from the garden will benefit guests to Rest in the Curve and Second Harvest Food Bank.

A team of faithful people go to Second Harvest every week to assist our neighbors as they choose food for their family. One of our members faithfully picks up our donations and purchases cases of crackers to donate each week. Tom and Nona Sarver pick up excess pizzas from Pappa John's the week our team works which benefits guests who come to obtain food.

Our faithfulness in feeding others is us living out the commandments to love God and neighbor. Many of you donate time, money and food to serve others.

We offer lunches to people who come on our campus. This year we have provided 1109 lunches to hungry people. Children attending VBS missions organized 90 lunches for our guests.

We supply food over the weekend for 77 children at Hickman Elementary through a program called FUEL. Without this additional food most of these children would go hungry over the weekend. Your generous donations and the time of the volunteers who assemble and deliver the food is another glimpse of God's love.

It is never enough to think we cannot make a difference in our world. We make a difference every day. It only takes one small act to make a difference. God has called all of us into a ministry of love and service. By doing something we are showing God's love to the world. People rarely remember what you say but they always remember how you treat them.

Serving others and showing respect to each other is our testimony to the love within our souls. Jesus called us to love each other. Are we loving others as we have been called? This is our continuing challenge. We must love each other and stay in relationship even when we don't agree, especially when we don't agree. It is only by attempting to understand each other that we fulfill God's commandment to love him and his children, our neighbor.

We are doing many acts of kindness here at Andrew Price to benefit our neighbor and each other. I am very proud and honored to serve with and among you.

Peace and Blessings, Deaconess Debbie Byrd
